

for L.B.
They Won That Game

S.W. Black

ANTIOCH by Lowell Mason (1792–1872)

tune of Joy to the World!

1. I thought per - haps the Cubs would win but not win
2. I thought they were a good bet to place. They never
3. How do you know if you are dead? Will you see
4. How do you know when the world ends. Is it be - that one game. I put some mo - ney on_____ it. The win their games. But they won that old game you know. Now Cubs win again? I thought they would ne - ver_____ win. I cause stuff happens? Is it be - cause the trump has won? Is Cubs they were to lose by ten. Yet they won that old_____ game. Yes, they I'm worr - ied a - bout my toes. My book - ie might break my toes. My_____ placed mo - ney on In - di - ans. I was cer - tain they wouldn't win. I was it be - cause the Cubs they won? Per - haps it's gone too_____ far. Per - won that sil - ly old game. And the Cubs!_ The Cubs!_ They won that game.

ank - les, shins and_____ toes. I'm_____ worr - ied my book - ie might break my toes.
quite cer - tain they wouldn't win. But you know they won, and_____ I lost my shirt.
haps the end is_____ here. How do you know the world_ has not end - ed?